

HUMOUR MARCH 2013

WHY FEMALE BRAINS ARE CHEAPER

The relatives were gathered in the waiting room of a British hospital, where one of their family members lay gravely ill.

The doctor came in looking tired and sombre.

"I'm afraid I'm the bearer of bad news", he said as he surveyed the worried faces.

"The only hope left for your loved one at this time is a brain transplant. It's an experimental procedure, very risky but it is the only hope.

Insurance will cover the procedure, but you will have to pay for the brain yourselves."

The family members sat silently as they absorbed the news. After a great length of time, someone asked, "Well, how much does a brain cost?"

The doctor quickly responded, "£5,000 for a male brain, and £200 for a female brain...."

The atmosphere became strained as the men in the room tried not to smile, avoiding eye contact with the women, but some of them actually smirked.

One of the men unable to control his curiosity, blurted out the question everyone wanted to ask,

"Why does the male brain cost so much more?"

The doctor smiled patronisingly, turned to address the group and said:

"It's just standard pricing procedure. We have to mark down the price of the female brains, because they have actually been used.

TICKLISH TEDDY BEARS

There is a factory in Essex where they make Teddy Bear toys which laugh when you tickle them under the arms. They are known as the Tickle Me Teddies.

A new girl called Shelley is hired at the factory. She reports for her first day and is allocated to the Tickle Me production line.

A couple of hours later there is a knock at the personnel manager's door. The foreman rushes in and begins to rant about the new employee. He complains that she is incredibly slow, the whole line is backing up, putting their entire production line behind schedule.

The personnel manager decides he should see this for himself, so the two men march down to the factory floor. When they get there the line is so backed up that there are Tickle Me Teddies all over the floor and they really are beginning to pile up.

At the end of the line stands Shelley surrounded by mountains of Teddy Bears. She has a roll of matching fabric and a huge bag of small marbles.

The two men watch spellbound as she cuts a little piece of fabric, wraps it around two marbles and begins to carefully sew the little package between Teddy's legs.

The personnel manager grins and shakes his head in amazement then walks across to where Shelley is working.

I'm sorry, he says to her, 'but I think you misunderstood the instructions I gave you yesterday...'

'Your job is to give Teddy two test tickles.

NEVER LIE TO A WOMAN

A man called home to his wife and said, 'Honey I have been asked to go fishing up in Queensland with my boss and several of his friends,

We'll be gone for a week. This is a good opportunity for me to work on that promotion I've been wanting.

Could you please pack enough clothes for me for a week and get out my rod and fishing tackle box. We're leaving straight from the office so I will call by the house on my way to pick my things up'

' Oh! And please pack my silk pyjamas - the new blue ones '

His wife thinks it all sounds a bit fishy but being the good wife she is, did exactly what her husband asked.

The following weekend he came home, looking a little tired but otherwise in good shape.

The wife welcomed him home and asked if he caught many fish?

He said, 'Yes! Lots of bream, some flathead, and a few whiting. But why didn't you pack my blue silk pyjamas like I asked you to?'

She smiled and said "I did. They're in your fishing tackle box "
