

HUMOUR
CHRISTMAS PARTY 2015

CAKE OR BED

A husband is at home watching a football game when his wife interrupts, “Honey, could you fix the light in the hallway? Its been flickering for weeks now”.

He looks at her and says angrily, “Fix the lights now? Does it look like I have Energy Australia written on my forehead? I don't think so”.

Then the wife asks, “Well then, could you have a look at the fridge door? It won't close correctly”.

To which he replied, “Fix the fridge door? Does it look like I have Westinghouse written on my forehead? I don't think so”.

“Fine, she says, then you could at least fix the loose steps at the front door ? They are about to break and are dangerous”?

“I'm not a carpenter and I don't want to fix steps he says. Does it look like I have Bunnings written on my forehead”?

“I don't think so and I've had enough of you. I'm going to the pub!!!!

So he goes to the pub and drinks with his mates for a couple of hours but then starts to feel guilty about how he treated his wife and decides to go home.

As he approaches the house he notices the steps already fixed. as he enters the house, he sees the hall light is working as he goes to get a beer, he notices the fridge door is fixed. “Honey, he asks, how did you get all these things fixed”?

She said, “Well, when you left I sat outside on the step. I was crying when a nice young man came over and asked me what was wrong - so I told him.

He offered to do all the repairs and to repay him all I had to do was either go to bed with him or bake a cake.

“So”, he asked “what kind of cake did you bake?

She replied, “Helloooo Fred, do you see Sara Lee written on my forehead? I don't think so”!

GAY SPIDERS?

A father watched his young daughter playing in the garden.

He smiled as he reflected on how sweet and pure his little girl was. Tears formed in his eyes as he thought about her seeing the wonders of nature through such innocent eyes.

Suddenly she just stopped and stared at the ground.

He went over to her to see what work of God had captured her attention.

He noticed she was looking at two spiders mating.

'Daddy, what are those two spiders doing?' she asked.

'They're mating,' her father replied.

'What do you call the spider on top?' she asked.

'That's a Daddy Longlegs,' her father answered.

'So, the other one is a Mummy Longlegs?' the little girl asked.

As his heart soared with the joy of such a cute and innocent question he replied, 'No dear. Both of them are Daddy Longlegs.'

'The little girl, looking a little puzzled, thought for a moment, then lifted her foot and stamped them flat...

'Well, we're not having any of that same sex nonsense in our garden' she said.

A TRUE STORY FROM THE PAGES OF THE MANCHESTER EVENING TIMES

Last Wednesday a passenger in a taxi heading for Salford station leaned over to ask the driver a question and gently tapped him on the shoulder to get his attention.

The driver screamed, lost control of the cab, nearly hit a bus, drove up over the curb and stopped just inches from a large plate window.

For a few moments everything was silent in the cab. Then, the shaking driver said "Are you OK? I'm so sorry, but you scared the daylights out of me."

The badly shaken passenger apologized to the driver and said, "I didn't realize that a mere tap on the shoulder would startle someone so badly."

The driver replied, "No, no, I'm the one who is sorry, it's entirely my fault. Today is my very first day driving a cab. I've been driving a hearse for 25 years."

THE OUTHOUSE

Martha and Morrie were two farmers living in outback Queensland. They have a drop lavatory and the hole under the outhouse is full.

Morrie goes into the house and admits to Martha that he doesn't know what to do to empty the hole.

Martha says, "Why don't you go ask the young fellow down the road? He must be smart 'cause he's an engineering graduate from University."

So Morrie drives down to the neighbour's property and asks the young man for advice.

The young man tells him, "Get yourself two sticks of dynamite, one with a short fuse and one with a long fuse. Put them both under the outhouse and light them both at the same time. The first one will go off and shoot the outhouse in the air. While it's in the air, the second one will then go off and spread the contents all across your farm, fertilizing your ground. The building should then come back down to the same spot atop the now-empty hole."

Morrie thanks the neighbour, drives to the hardware store and picks up two sticks of dynamite, one with a short fuse and one with a long fuse.

He goes home and puts them under the outhouse as suggested, then lights them and stands behind a tree.

All of a sudden, Martha comes running out of the kitchen and into the lavatory before Morrie can stop her!

Boom! Off goes the first stick of dynamite ... shooting the outhouse into the air, followed by a second explosion, which scatters the contents of the pit across the yard.

Then wham! The outhouse building comes crashing back down on top of the hole.

Morrie races up to the outhouse, throws open the door and yells "Martha, are you all right??"

Shaking her head as she pulls up her panties she says... "Yeah I'm OK but I'm sure glad I didn't fart in the kitchen."

ROMANTIC SCOTS

A thoughtful Scottish husband was putting his coat and hat on to make his way down to the local pub.

He turned to his wee wife before leaving and said, Iris - you better put your hat and coat on, lassie.

'She replied, 'Awe Robert that's nice - are you taking me to the pub with you?'

'Nay,' Robert replied 'I'm turning the heat off while I'm out.'

RESTAURANT ETIQUETTE

A man and a woman were having a quiet, romantic dinner in a fine restaurant.

They were gazing lovingly at each other and holding hands.

The waitress, taking another order at a table a few steps away, noticed the woman slowly sliding down her chair and under the table - but the man stared straight ahead.

The waitress watched as the woman slid all the way down her chair and out of sight under the table. Still, the man stared straight ahead.

The waitress, thinking this behavior a bit strange and worried that it might offend other diners, went over to the table and tactfully said to the man, "Pardon me, sir, but I think your wife just slid under the table."

The man looked up calmly and said, "No, she didn't. She just walked in!"

COFFEE AND TESTICLES?

A guy goes into Australia Post to apply for a job.

The interviewer asks him, "Are you allergic to anything?" He replies, "Yes, caffeine. I can't drink coffee."

"Ok, have you ever been in the military service?" "Yes," he says, "I was in Afghanistan for one tour."

The interviewer says, "That will give you 5 extra points towards your employment score "

Then he asks, "Are you disabled in any way?"

The guy says, "Yes. A bomb exploded near me and I lost both my testicles."

The interviewer grimaces and then says, Disabled in your country's service! Well that certainly qualifies for extra bonus points.

"Okay. Looking at the regulations you have got enough points for me to hire you right now.

Our normal hours are from 8:00 am to 4:00 PM.

You can start tomorrow at 10:00 am, and plan on starting at 10:00 am every day."

The guy is puzzled and asks, "If the work hours are from 8:00 am to 4:00 PM, why don't you want me here until 10:00 am?"

"This is a government job", the interviewer says.

"For the first two hours, we just stand around drinking coffee and scratching our balls. No point in you coming in for that."

HELGA'S DIARY ON A CRUISE SHIP

DEAR DIARY

DAY 1

All packed for the cruise ship – all my nicest dresses, swimsuits, short sets. Really quite exciting. Our local Red Hat chapter decided on this all-girls trip. It will be my first one and I can't wait!

DAY 2

Entire day at sea – beautiful. Saw whales and dolphins . Met the Captain today – he seems like a very nice man.

DAY 3

At the pool today. Did some shuffleboard, hit golf balls off the deck. The Captain invited me to join him at his table for dinner. Felt honoured and had a wonderful time. He is very attractive and attentive

DAY 4

Won $800.00 in the ship's casino. The Captain asked me to have dinner with him in his own cabin. Had a scrumptious meal complete with caviar and champagne. He asked me to stay the night, but I declined. Told him I could not be unfaithful to my husband.-

DAY 5

Pool again today. Got sunburned, and I went inside to drink at piano-bar, stayed there for rest of day. The Captain saw me, bought me several large drinks. Really he is quite charming and again asked me to visit his cabin for the night. Again I declined.

He told me, if I did not let him have his way with me, he would sink the ship... I was shocked.

DAY 6

Today I saved 2600 lives... Twice!
