

"Yes, I've come back like we agreed."

"That's wonderful! What's it like?"

"Well, I get up in the morning, I have sex. I have breakfast and then it's off to the golf course.

I have sex again, I relax in the warm sun and then have sex a couple more times.

Then I have lunch -you'd be proud of me eating lots of greens -followed by another romp around the golf course, then pretty much sex for the rest of the afternoon.

After supper, it's back to golf course again with more sex until late at night.

I catch some much needed sleep and the next day it starts all over again.

"Oh, Bob are you in Heaven?"

"No Marion .....I'm a rabbit in Arizona

GOLF OR SEX ?

A man is watching golf on TV but keeps switching channels to watch a movie featuring a raucous couple having lusty sex.

He says to his wife should I watch them or the game ?

For heaven's sake watch them - you already know how to play golf.

HELLO DAD ?

This fellow was in the local supermarket at the weekend doing some shopping for his wife.

On looking up he saw this very attractive woman in the next aisle looking at him, and as he caught her eye she gave him a beautiful big smile and a little wave.

Puzzled, he walked across to her and asked: "Do I know you?"

Still smiling she replied: " You certainly ought to...you're the father of one of my children!"

He visibly paled, as his mind flashed back with horror and guilt ... to that one solitary episode of infidelity, and he said to her, his voice quavering:

It can't be that night at that buck's party when I was the best man and got so terribly drunk, and you were the stripper, and with my mates all standing around cheering me on, I had sex with you on the pool table? ".

"No", she said, "I'm your daughter's maths teacher".

FOOD AND SPELLING

A grade three teacher is giving a lesson on nutrition, and she decides to ask her students what they had for breakfast.

To add a spelling component, she asks the students to also spell their answers.

Susan puts up her hand and says she had an egg, 'E-G-G'.

'Very good', says the teacher.

Peter says he had toast. 'T-O-A-S-T.

'Excellent.'

Johnny has his hand up and the teacher reluctantly calls on him. 'I had Bugger all', he says, 'B-U-G-G-E-R-A-L-L.

The teacher is mortified and scolds Johnny for his rude answer.

Later when the lesson turns to geography, she asks the students some rudimentary questions.

Susan correctly identifies the Capital of Canada,

Peter is able to tell her which ocean is off Canada's east coast.

When it's Johnny's turn, the teacher remembers his rude answer from the nutrition lesson, and decides to give him a very difficult question.

Johnny, she asks, 'Where is the Pakistani border?'

Johnny ponders the question and finally says,

'The Pakistani boarder is in bed with my mother. That's why I got Bugger all for breakfast'.

THE THREE LITTLE PIGS

This is a true story

A teacher was reading the story of the Three Little Pigs to her class.

She came to the part of the story where first pig was trying to gather the building materials for his home.

She read. "And so the pig went up to the man with the wheelbarrow full of straw and said: 'Pardon me sir, but may I have some of that straw to build my house?'"

The teacher paused then asked the class: "And what do you think the man said?"

One little boy raised his hand and said, very matter-of-factly...

"I think the man would have said - 'Well, I'll be blowed. A talking pig!'"

The teacher had to leave the room.

STRAIGHT ANSWERS

TV: "Congratulations Prime Minister. Before we start, as we stand here on Thursday afternoon, do you accept that tomorrow will be Friday?"

PM: "We have always supported the standard structure of the calendar and acknowledge that the public expect a regular system that provides the rhythm necessary for everyday planning and life structures. We feel very strongly about this."

TV: "So you do agree that tomorrow is Friday?"

PM: "It isn't important whether it is Friday or Monday. What is important is that unexpected changes don't interfere with the normal expectations of the public - and this government has a solid record in supporting those expectations."

TV: "But as today is Thursday, surely you can confirm that tomorrow is Friday;"

PM: "Everything is relative and whether the next day is Wednesday or Sunday is dependent on where you stand at the time. We have never challenged the current system and have the full support of the unions on this. Most Intelligent people agree that changes are not required."

TV: "Well then, what day is tomorrow?"

PM: "Tomorrow is the next day in our plan to further develop our marvelous country In many areas. We plan to continue providing better health care, reduced debt, reduced unemployment, controlled immigration and to be a world leader in controlling global warming."

TV: "Returning to the question, can you not confirm that Friday is tomorrow?"

PM: "Friday is always around. It has been around many times before and will be around again many more times. Which is why we need - as a responsible government - to plan and organise for the future. Not just for tomorrow, but for our children and their children."

TV: "Prime Minister, the viewers are waiting for your answer on what day you think tomorrow is?"

PM: "We are dealing with bigger issues here. The Friday, Saturday, Sunday thing is not important or relevant to the scheme of things. They need to understand the critical issues and focus on the matters of concern, such as the condition of our nation and how we can continue to develop it so that all may reap the benefit."

TV: "Im sorry, we seem to have lost the point here again. Are you saying that it isn't Friday tomorrow?"

PM "The reality is that it is not important what day it is. What is important is how we handle the situation - and my government is handling it with solid policies evolved from the mandate the people gave us."

TV: "But we just want to know if you agree that it will be Friday tomorrow?"

PM: "Let's remain focused here. It is important we stand rock steady In our dedication to the job In hand. In closing, let me say one more time - we are fully committed to the task and have commissioned a report that will enable us to develop the plans for the future. Thank you."
