What does it mean to be British

A British national daily newspaper asked readers:
"What does it mean to be British?"

Some replies were hilarious,
but this one from a resident of Switzerland stood out:

"Being British is about driving a German car to an Irish pub for a Belgian beer, then going home, grabbing an Indian curry or a Turkish kebab on the way, to sit on Swedish furniture and watch American shows on a Japanese TV.

He buys a holiday home in Spain, skis in France, fancies Swedish birds and has a Romanian au-pair."

And the most British thing of all?
"Suspicion of anything foreign."
