

NOT ALL OLDIES ARE PAST IT

I know I shouldn't have done this, but I am almost 85 years old.

I was in the McDonald's drive-through yesterday afternoon and this young woman behind me leaned on her horn and started mouthing something rude because I was taking too long to place my order.

So when I got to the first window I paid for her order along with my own.

The cashier must have told her what I'd done, because as we moved up she leaned out her window and waved to me and mouthed "Thank you.",.

Obviously embarrassed that I had repaid her rudeness with a kindness.

When I got to the second window, I showed them both receipts and took her food too.

Now she has to go back to the end of the queue and start all over again. She'll be old one day.
