

Christmas Decorating

I wanted our street to have the prettiest decorations in the neighbourhood, so I strung electric coloured lights from house to house, all the way down the block.

I did all the electrical wiring myself.

If you'd like further information, just drive down Curagul Road in North Turramurra.

We're the third pile of ashes from the corner.

- Bob Hope