

Lawyers and witnesses

>> WE NEED MORE GRANDMOTHERS IN COURT!!!

>> Why Lawyers should never ask a witness a question if they >>aren't prepared for the answer. In a trial, a Southern small town >>prosecuting attorney called his first witness to the stand ... a >> grandmotherly, elderly woman. He approached her and asked,
"Mrs.

>>Jones, do you know me?"

>> She responded, "Why, yes I do know you, Mr.Williams. I've know >>you since you were a young boy, and frankly, you've been a big >>disappointment to me. You lie, you cheat on your wife, you manipulate >>people and talk about them behind their backs. You think you're a big >>shot when you haven't the brains to realize you never will amount to >>anything more than a two-bit paper pusher. Yes, I know you."

>> The Lawyer was stunned.

>> Not knowing what else to do, he pointed across the room and >>asked, "Mrs. Jones, do you know the defense attorney?"

>> She again replied, "Why yes, I do. I've known Mr. Bradley since >>he was a youngster, too.

>> He's lazy, bigoted, and he has a drinking problem. He can't >> build

>>normal relationship with anyone and his law practice is one of the >>worst in the entire state. Not to mention he cheated on his wife with >>three different women, one of them was your wife. yes, I know him."

>> The defense attorney almost died.

>> The judge asked both counselors to approach the bench, and in >>very quiet voice, said:

>> "If either of you bastards asks her if she knows me, I'll throw

>>your sorry asses in jail for contempt."
