The bus inspector came over to see and asked what the problem was.

Paddy says, "I'm waiting for the Ticket Conductor" .

The bus inspector informed him that all the buses were now a One Man operation.

So paddy drives off in the Double Decker Bus.

Twenty minutes later there is a call to the depot,

"One of your buses has been involved in a traffic incident."

The bus inspector goes down to the crash & there is paddy & the wrecked bus.

"Bejesus paddy how did this happen?" Asked the bus inspector.

Paddy shrugged his shoulders, and said.

"Buggered if I know, I was upstairs collecting fares at the time!
